

CURRICULUM VITAE
July 25, 2018

DAVID F. LABAREE

CURRENT POSITION:

Lee L. Jacks Professor
Graduate School of Education
485 Lasuen Mall
Stanford University
Stanford, CA 94305

Cell phone: (650) 269-1748
Fax: (650) 725-7412
E-mail: dlabaree@stanford.edu
Web: <https://ed.stanford.edu/faculty/dlabaree>
Office: 312 Cubberley

EDUCATION:

University of Pennsylvania	Ph.D.	1983	Sociology
University of Pennsylvania	M.A.	1978	Sociology
Harvard College	B.A.	1970	Social Relations

SELECTED LEADERSHIP ROLES IN PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

Vice president of Division F (History of Education) and council member, American Educational Research Association, 2003 to 2006.

Member, Executive Board, American Educational Research Association, 2004 to 2006.

President, History of Education Society, 2004 to 2005.

Vice president, History of Education Society, 2003 to 2004; organizer of 2004 annual meeting.

SELECTED HONORS:

Faculty Advising Award, 2017; Stanford University Graduate School of Education

American Educational Research Association Fellows, elected 2013.

Critics' Choice Award, 1998; American Educational Studies Association, co-winner (along with more than 20 other books) for How to succeed in school without really learning.

Faculty Appreciation Award, 1997; Educational Graduate Students Association, College of Education, Michigan State University.

Teacher-Scholar Award, 1990; Michigan State University.

Outstanding Book Award, 1989; American Educational Research Association (for The making of an American high school).

Outstanding Book Award, 1989; History of Education Society (for The Making of an American High School).

ACADEMIC POSITIONS:

Lee L. Jacks Professor of Education	Stanford University	2017 to present
Affiliated Faculty, Bio-X	Stanford University	2016 to present
Chair, Area Committee in Social Sciences, Humanities and Interdisciplinary Policy Studies (SHIPS)	Stanford University	2011 to 2017
Chair, Area Committee in Social Sciences, Policy, and Educational Practice (SSPEP)	Stanford University	2009 to 2011
Professor of History (by courtesy)	Stanford University	2008 to present
Associate Dean for Student Affairs	Stanford University	2005 to 2008
Professor of Education	Stanford University	2003 to present
Professor of Teacher Education	Michigan State University	1998 to 2003
Associate Professor of Teacher Education	Michigan State University	1988 to 1998
Assistant Professor of Teacher Education	Michigan State University	1985 to 1988
Assistant Professor of Social Science	Widener University	1984 to 1985
Assistant Professor of Sociology	Georgetown University	1983 to 1984
Instructor of Sociology	Bucks Co. Community College	1975 to 1983
	University of Pennsylvania
	Trenton State College

INTERESTS:

History of education in the U.S.
 History of higher education in the U.S.
 History and sociology of school reform in the U.S.
 Sociology of education
 History, purposes, and functions of colleges of education
 Politics, markets, and schools
 Educational policy

RECENT COURSES TAUGHT:

Doctoral Proseminar in Education
 Academic Writing for Clarity and Grace
 History of Higher Education
 History of School Reform in the U.S.
 School: What Is It Good For?

BOOKS:

- Labaree, David F. (2017). A perfect mess: The unlikely ascendancy of American higher education. Chicago: University of Chicago Press.
- Labaree, David F. (2010). Someone has to fail: The zero-sum game of public schooling. Cambridge: Harvard University Press.
- Labaree, David F. (2007). Education, markets, and the public good: Selected works of David F. Labaree (in series: Routledge World Library of Educationalists). London: Routledge.
- Labaree, David F. (2004). The trouble with ed schools. New Haven: Yale University Press.
- Labaree, David F. (1997). How to succeed in school without really learning: The credentials race in American education. New Haven: Yale University Press.
- Labaree, David F. (1988). The making of an American high school: The credentials market and the Central High School of Philadelphia, 1838-1939. New Haven: Yale University Press.

EDITED BOOK:

- Tröhler, Daniel, Popkewitz, Thomas, & Labaree, David F. (Eds.). (2011). Schooling and the making of citizens in the long nineteenth century: Comparative visions. New York: Routledge.

MEDIA ARTICLES:

- Labaree, David F. (2018). The exceptionalism of American higher education. Project Syndicate (May 17). <https://www.project-syndicate.org/commentary/american-higher-education-exceptionalism-by-david-f-labaree-2018-05?linkId=51848748>
- Labaree, David F. (2018). The five-paragraph fetish. Aeon (February 15). <https://aeon.co/essays/writing-essays-by-formula-teaches-students-how-to-not-think>
- Labaree, David F. (2017). Rags to riches: The unlikely ascendancy of American higher education. Aeon (October 11). <https://aeon.co/essays/how-the-us-college-went-from-pitiful-to-powerful>
- Labaree, David F. (2017). Nobel prizes are great, but college football is why American universities dominate the globe. Op-ed in Quartz (October 7). <https://qz.com/1095906/nobel-prizes-are-great-but-college-football-is-why-american-universities-dominate-the-globe/>.
- Labaree, David F. (2013). Why GSE? Why now? Stanford Educator (spring), 4-5.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). Targeting teachers. Dissent (summer), 9-14.

- Labaree, David F. (2000). Resisting educational standards. Phi Delta Kappan, 82:1 (September), 28-33.
- Labaree, David F. (1999). The chronic failure of curriculum reform. Perspective article, Lessons of a Century series, Education Week 16:36 (May 19), pp. 42-44. Reprinted in Staff of Education Week (2000), Lessons of a century: A nation's schools come of age (pp. 148-151). Bethesda, MD: Editorial Projects in Education.
- Labaree, David F. (1999). Too easy a target: The trouble with ed schools and the implications for the university. Academe, 85:1 (January-February), 34-39.
- Labaree, David F. (1998). Educational consumerism: Bad for schools. Op-ed column, Detroit News, February 26, p. 15A.
- Labaree, David F. (1997). Are students “consumers”? The rise of public education as a private good. Commentary article in Education Week 17:3 (September 17), pp. 48, 38.
- Labaree, David F. (1994). An unlovely legacy: The disabling impact of the market on American teacher education. Phi Delta Kappan, 75:8 (April), 591-595.
- Labaree, David F. (1989). The American high school has failed its missions. MSU Alumni Bulletin, 7:1 (Fall), 14-17; reprinted in MASB Journal (Michigan Association of School Boards), 50 (November), 10-12.
- Labaree, David F. (1983). Schools: Some caveats on promoting. Op-ed, Philadelphia Inquirer (May 17).

REFEREED JOURNAL ARTICLES:

- Labaree, David F. (2017). Perils of the professionalized historian. Bildungsgeschichte: International Journal for the Historiography of Education, 7:1, 95-6.
- Labaree, David F. (2016). An affair to remember: America's brief fling with the university as a public good. Journal of Philosophy of Education, 50: 1, 20-36.
- Labaree, David F. (2014). College – What is it good for? Education and Culture, 30: 1, 3-15.
- Labaree, David F. (2014). Let's measure what no one teaches: PISA, NCLB, and the shrinking aims of education. Teachers College Record, 116: 090303, 14 pages.
- Labaree, David F. (2013). A system without a plan: Emergence of an American system of higher education in the twentieth century. Bildungsgeschichte: International Journal for the Historiography of Education, 3:1, 46-59.

- Labaree, David F. (2012). School syndrome: Understanding the USA's magical belief that schooling can somehow improve society, promote access, and preserve advantage. Journal of Curriculum Studies, 44:2, 143-163.
- Labaree, David F. (2012). Sermon on educational research. Bildungsgeschichte: International Journal for the Historiography of Education, 2:1, 78-87.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). Do no harm. Teacher Education and Practice, 24:4, 434-439.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). The lure of statistics for educational researchers. Educational Theory, 61:6, 621-631.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). Consuming the public school. Educational Theory, 61: 4, 381-394.
- Labaree, David F. (2010). Understanding the rise of American higher education: How complexity breeds autonomy (translated into Chinese). Peking University Education Review, 8:3, 24-39.
- Labaree, David F. (2010). What schools can't do. Zeitschrift für Pädagogische Historiographie, 16:1, 12-18.
- Labaree, David F. (2009). Teach For America and teacher ed: Heads they win, tails we lose. Journal of Teacher Education, 61:1-2, 48-55.
- Labaree, David F. (2009). Participant in moderated discussion of the film 2 Million Minutes. Comparative Education Review, 53:1, 113-137.
- Labaree, David F. (2008). The winning ways of a losing strategy: Educationalizing social problems in the U.S. Educational Theory, 58:4 (November), 447-460.
- Labaree, David F. (2008). The dysfunctional pursuit of relevance in educational research. Educational Researcher, 37:7 (October), 421-23.
- Labaree, David F. (2006). Mutual subversion: A short history of the liberal and the professional in American higher education. History of Education Quarterly, 46:1 (Spring), 1-15.
- Labaree, David F. (2006). Innovation, nostalgia, and the politics of educational change. Educational Administration Quarterly, 42:1 (February), 157-164.
- Labaree, David F. (2005). Life on the margins. Journal of Teacher Education, 56:3 (May/June), 186-191).
- Labaree, David F. (2005). Progressivism, schools, and schools of education: An American romance. Paedagogica Historica, 41:1&2 (February), 275-288.

- Labaree, David F. (2003). The peculiar problems of preparing and becoming educational researchers. Educational Researcher, 32:4 (May), 13-22.
- Labaree, David F. (2000). On the nature of teaching and teacher education: Difficult practices that look easy. Journal of Teacher Education, 51:3 (May), 68-73.
- Labaree, David F. (1998). Educational researchers: Living with a lesser form of knowledge. Educational Researcher, 27:8 (November), 4-12. Reprinted in Day, C. et al. (Eds.), The life and work of teachers: International perspectives in changing times (pp. 55-75). London: Falmer Press.
- Labaree, David F. (1997). Public goods, private goods: The American struggle over educational goals. American Educational Research Journal, 34:1 (Spring), 39-81.
- Labaree, David F. (1996). The trouble with ed schools. Educational Foundations, 10:3 (Summer), 27-45.
- Labaree, David F., & Pallas, A. M. (1996). Dire straits: The narrow vision of the Holmes Group. Rejoinder: The Holmes Group's Mystifying Response. Educational Researcher, 25:5 (June/July), 25-28, 31-32, 47.
- Labaree, David F. (1995). A disabling vision: Rhetoric and reality in Tomorrow's Schools of Education. Teachers College Record, 97:2 (Winter), 166-205.
- Labaree, David F. (1992). Power, knowledge, and the rationalization of teaching: A genealogy of the movement to professionalize teaching. Harvard Educational Review, 62:2 (Summer), 123-154.
- Labaree, David F. (1992). Doing good, doing science: The Holmes Group reports and the rhetorics of educational reform. Teachers College Record, 93:4 (Summer), 628-640.
- Labaree, David F. (1991). Does the subject matter? Dewey, democracy, and the history of curriculum. History of Education Quarterly, 31:4 (Winter), 513-521.
- Labaree, David F. (1990). A kinder and gentler report: Turning Points and the Carnegie tradition. Journal of Education Policy 5:3, 249-264.
- Labaree, David F. (1990). From comprehensive high school to community college: Politics, markets, and the evolution of educational opportunity. In Corwin, R. G. (Ed.), Research on Sociology of Education and Socialization, 9, 203-240. Greenwich, Conn.: JAI Press.
- Labaree, David F. (1987). Politics, markets and the compromised curriculum. Harvard Educational Review 57:4 (November), 483-494.
- Labaree, David F. (1986). Parens patriae: The private roots of public policy toward children. History of Education Quarterly, 26:1 (Spring), 111-116.

Labaree, David F. (1986). Curriculum, credentials, and the middle class: A case study of a nineteenth century high school. Sociology of Education, 59:1 (January), 42-57.

Labaree, David F. (1984). Academic excellence in an early U.S. high school. Social Problems, 31:5 (June), 558-567.

Labaree, David F. (1984). Setting the standard: Alternative policies for student promotion. Harvard Educational Review, 54:1 (February), 67-87.

BOOK CHAPTERS:

Labaree, David F. (2017). Futures of the field of education. In Geoff Whitty & John Furlong (Eds.), Knowledge and the study of education: An international exploration (pp. 277-283). Oxford, UK: Symposium Books.

Labaree, David F. (2016). Learning to love the bomb: The Cold War brings the best of times to American higher education. In Paul Smeyers & Marc Depaepe (Eds.), Educational research: Discourses of change and changes in discourse (pp. 101-117). Dordrecht: Springer.

Labaree, David F. (2014). Schooling in the United States: Historical analyses. In D.C. Phillips (Ed.), Encyclopedia of educational theory and philosophy (pp. 740-43). Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage Publications.

Labaree, David F. (2013). Balancing access and advantage in the history of American schooling. In Rolf Becker, Patrick Bühler, & Thomas Bühler (Eds.), Bildungsungleichheit und Gerechtigkeit: Wissenschaftliche und Gesellschaftliche Herausforderungen (pp. 101-114). Bern: Haupt Verlag.

Labaree, David F. (2013). Targeting teachers. In Michael B. Katz & Mike Rose (Eds.), Public education under siege (pp. 30-39). Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania Press.

Labaree, David F. (2013). The power of the parochial in shaping the American system of higher education. In Paul Smeyers & Marc Depaepe (Eds.), Educational research: The importance and effects of institutional spaces (pp. 31-46). Dordrecht: Springer.

Labaree, David F. (2011). When is school an answer to what social problems? Lessons from the early American republic. In Daniel Tröhler & Ragnhild Barbu (Eds.), Educational systems in historical, cultural and sociological perspectives (pp. 77-90). Rotterdam: Sense Publishers.

Labaree, David F. (2011). Adventures in scholarship. In Wayne Urban (Ed.), Leaders in the historical study of American education (pp. 193-204). Rotterdam: Sense Publishers.

Labaree, David F. (2011). Citizens and consumers: Changing visions of virtue and opportunity in U.S. education, 1841-1954. In Daniel Tröhler, Thomas Popkewitz, and David F. Labaree (Eds.), Schooling and the making of citizens in the long nineteenth century (pp. 168-183). New York: Palgrave Macmillan.

Labaree, David F. (2011). The lure of statistics for educational researchers. In Paul Smeyers & Marc Depaepe (Eds.), Educational research: Ethics and esthetics of statistics (pp. 13-25). Dordrecht: Springer.

Labaree, David F. (2010). How Dewey lost: The victory of David Snedden and social efficiency in the reform of American education. In Daniel Tröhler, Thomas Schlag, and Fritz Osterwalder (Eds.), Pragmatism and modernities (pp. 163-188). Rotterdam: Sense Publishers.

Labaree, David F. (2009). Educational formalism and the language of goals in American education, educational reform, and educational history. In Paul Smeyers & Marc Depaepe (Eds.), Educational research: Proofs, arguments, and other reasonings (pp. 41-60). Dordrecht: Springer.

Labaree, David F. (2008). Limits on the impact of educational reform: The case of progressivism and U.S. schools, 1900-1950. In Claudia Crotti & Fritz Osterwalder (Eds.), Das Jahrhundert der Schulreformen: Internationale und nationale Perspektiven, 1900-1950 (pp. 105-133). Berne: Haupt.

Labaree, David F. (2008). An uneasy relationship: The history of teacher education in the university. In Cochran-Smith, Marilyn, Feiman Nemser, Sharon, & McIntyre, D. John (Eds.), Handbook of research on teacher education: Enduring issues in changing contexts, 3rd ed. (pp. 290-306). Washington, DC: Association of Teacher Educators.

Labaree, David F. (2006). Progressisme, écoles, et education school: Une romance américaine. In Hofstetter, Rita & Schneuwly, Bernard (Eds.), Passion, fusion, tension: New education and educational sciences (pp. 305-324). Bern: Peter Lang. (Translation of 2005 paper in Paedagogica Historica.)

Labaree, David F. (2004). The ed school's romance with progressivism. In Ravitch, Diane (Ed.), Brookings papers on education policy, 2004 (pp. 89-129). Washington, DC: Brookings Institution Press.

Labaree, David F. (2000). No exit: Public education as an inescapably public good. In Cuban, L., & Shipps, D. (Eds.), Reconstructing the common good in education: Coping with intractable American dilemmas (pp. 110-129). Stanford: Stanford University Press. Translated into Japanese and published in Hidenori Fujita (Ed.), (2000), Education, Knowledge, Power (pp. 110-138). Translated into Italian and published in Punti Critici, 7 (November), 115-143.

Gitlin, A., & Labaree, David F. (1996). Historical notes on the barriers to the professionalization of American teachers: The influence of markets and patriarchy. In Hargreaves, A., & Goodson, I. (Eds.), Teachers' Professional Lives (pp. 88-108). Philadelphia: Falmer Press.

Labaree, David F. (1995). Why do schools cooperate with reformers? The case of the teacher professionalization movement. In Petrie, H. G. (Ed.), Professionalization, Partnership and Power: Building Professional Development Schools (pp. 93-109). Albany: SUNY Press.

Labaree, David F. (1995). The lowly status of teacher education in the U.S.: The impact of markets and the implications for reform. In Shimihara, N. K., & Holowinsky, I. Z. (Eds.), Teacher Education in Industrialized Nations: Issues in Changing Social Contexts (pp. 41-85). New York: Garland Publishing.

Labaree, David F. (1989). Career ladders and the early public high school teacher: A study of inequality and opportunity. In Warren, D. (Ed.), American Teachers: Histories of a Profession at Work (pp. 157-189). New York: Macmillan.

OTHER PUBLICATIONS:

Labaree, David F. (2003). The future of schools of education. The Navigator, 3:1 (fall), p. 7. Center for Higher Education Policy Analysis, Rossier School of Education, University of Southern California.

Labaree, David F. (2003). Comment on paper by John Bishop. In Ravitch, Diane (Ed.), Brookings Papers on Education Policy, 2003 (pp. 204-208). Washington, DC: Brookings Institution Press.

Labaree, David F. (1995). Foreword. In Brown, D. K., Degrees of control: A sociology of educational expansion and occupational credentialism (pp. ix-xvi). New York: Teachers College Press.

MONOGRAPHS:

Labaree, David F. (1983). Setting the Standard: The Characteristics and Consequences of Alternative Student Promotional Policies. Philadelphia: Citizens Committee on Public Education in Philadelphia.

Labaree, David F. (1983). The people's college: A sociological analysis of Philadelphia's Central High School, 1838-1939. Ph.D. dissertation, University of Pennsylvania.

Katz, Michael B., Hogan, David J., Labaree, David F., & Licht, Walter. (1983). The organization of work, schooling, and family life in Philadelphia, 1838-1920. Philadelphia: University of Pennsylvania. Final report to the National Institute of Education, Grant No. 9-0173.

REFEREED CONFERENCE PAPERS:

- Labaree, David F. (2017). Paper presented at conference on “(Re)presentation, Dissemination and Reception” of the research group on Philosophy and History of the Discipline of Education: Purposes, Projects and Practices of Educational Research, Brixen, Italy.
- Labaree, David F. (2014). Learning to love the bomb: America’s brief cold-war fling with the university as a public good. Paper presented at conference on “Discourses of Change and Changes of Discourse” of the research group on Philosophy and History of the Discipline of Education, Leuven, Belgium.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). The power of the parochial in shaping the American system of higher education. Paper presented at conference on “The Role of Space in Education,” of the research group on Philosophy and History of the Discipline of Education: Faces and Spaces of Educational Research, Nuremburg, Germany.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). A system without a plan: Emergence of an American system of higher education in the 20th century. Paper presented at the international research congress on “International and National Standardization and Differentiation of Education Systems from a Historical Perspective,” Centro Stefano Franscini, Monte Verità, Ascona, Switzerland.
- Labaree, David F. (2010). The thinning mission of the American public school. Educational Theory Summer Institute, University of Illinois.
- Labaree, David F. (2009). The lure of statistics for educational researchers. Presented at the conference on “The Ethics and Esthetics of Statistics” of the research group on Philosophy and History of the Discipline of Education: Faces and Spaces of Educational Research, Catholic University Leuven, Belgium.
- Labaree, David F. (2009). The winning ways of a losing strategy: Educationalizing social problems in the U.S. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research association, San Diego.
- Labaree, David F. (2008). Educational formalism and the language of goals in American education, educational reform, and the history of education. Paper presented at conference on “Proofs, Arguments, and Other Reasonings: The Language of Education,” of the research group on Philosophy and History of the Discipline of Education, Catholic University, Leuven, Belgium.
- Labaree, David F. (2008). How Dewey lost: The victory of David Snedden and social efficiency in the reform of American education. Paper presented at conference on “Pragmatism as the Reticle of Modernization: Concepts, Contexts, Critiques,” Centro Stefano Franscini, Monte Verità, Ascona, Switzerland.
- Labaree, David F. (2008). Citizens and consumers: Changing visions of virtue and opportunity in U.S. education, 1841-2002. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research association, New York.

- Labaree, David F. (2007). Limits on the impact of educational reform: The case of progressivism and U.S. schools, 1900-1950. Paper presented at conference on "The Century of the School: Continuity and Innovation During the First Half of the 20th Century," Centro Stefano Franscini, Monte Verità, Ascona, Switzerland.
- Labaree, David F. (2007). Citizens and consumers: Changing visions of virtue and opportunity in U.S. education in the 19th and 20th centuries. Paper presented at conference on "Republican and Non-Republican Imaginations: Comparative Visions and developments of Schooling from the 18th Century to 1930." Pestalozzian Research Institute for the History of Education, Zurich (University of Applied Sciences, Zurich, February 2007).
- Labaree, David F. (2003). The peculiar problems of preparing educational researchers. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, Chicago.
- Labaree, David F. (1996). Private goods, public goods: The American struggle over educational goals. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, New York.
- Labaree, David F. (1995). Sweeping reform and narrow vision: The rhetorics and practices embedded in Tomorrow's Schools of Education. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, San Francisco.
- Gitlin, A., & Labaree, David F. (1994). Roots of an unprofession: Notes on the barriers to professionalization in the history of American teachers. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, New Orleans.
- Labaree, David F. (1992). Why do schools cooperate with reformers? The case of the teacher professionalization movement. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, San Francisco.
- Labaree, David F. (1991). Doing good, doing science: The Holmes Group reports and the rhetorics of educational reform. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, Chicago.
- Labaree, David F. (1990). A kinder and gentler report: Turning Points and the Carnegie tradition. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the History of Education Society, Atlanta.
- Labaree, David F. (1990). The politics of teacher professionalization in the 1980s. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Sociological Association, Washington, DC.
- Labaree, David F. (1989). From comprehensive high school to community college: Politics, markets and the evolution of educational reform. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, San Francisco.

Labaree, David F. (1988). The work life of the early high school teacher: Notes toward a history. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association meeting, New Orleans.

Labaree, David F. (1987). Credentialism in a falling market: The disabling legacy of the early high school. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, Washington, DC.

Labaree, David F. (1986). Proletarianizing the high school teacher. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, San Francisco.

Labaree, David F. (1984). Academic excellence in the early American high school, 1840-1920. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the History of Education Society, Chicago.

Labaree, David F. (1984). Curriculum and the valuation of educational credentials: A case study of a nineteenth century high school. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the American Sociological Association, Washington, DC.

Labaree, David F. (1984). Curriculum codes and school organization. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Eastern Sociological Society, Philadelphia.

Labaree, David F. (1982). Social class and meritocracy at the Central High School of Philadelphia, 1910-1920. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Organization of American Historians, Philadelphia.

Labaree, David F. (1982). Notes on the bureaucratization of American school systems: The Philadelphia example. Paper presented at the annual meeting of the Eastern Sociological Society, New York.

INVITED PAPERS AND LECTURES:

Labaree, David F. (2017). Rags to riches: The unlikely ascendancy of American higher education. Lecture at University of Wisconsin School of Education.

Labaree, David F. (2015). Private advantage, public impact: The role of the private college in shaping American higher education. Lecture given at doctoral colloquium “Theory and Data in the History of Education: A Cross-Cultural and Cross-Generational Exchange” at University of Luxembourg. (2015). Presentation at University of California (Irvine) Law Conference on Higher Education Access.

Labaree, David F. (2014). Learning to love the bomb: America’s brief cold-war fling with the university as a public good. Keynote address presented at the annual meeting of the German Sociology Association, Trier, Germany. Lecture presented at the History of Education Library, Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany. (2016). Lecture presented at the Sociology of Education Association, Asilomar, CA.

- Labaree, David F. (2013). College – What is it good for? 55th annual John Dewey Lecture, John Dewey Society, at the annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association.
- Labaree, David F. (2012). Balancing access and advantage in the history of American schooling. Keynote address delivered the Swiss Society for Research in Education Conference, “Educational Inequality and Justice: Scientific and Social Challenges,” University of Berne. (2016). Lecture given at doctoral colloquium “Theory and Data in the History of Education: A Cross-Cultural and Cross-Generational Exchange” at University of Wisconsin.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). Sermon on educational research. Lecture given at doctoral colloquium “Theory and Data in the History of Education: A Cross-Cultural and Cross-Generational Exchange” at University of Luxembourg.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). How can a university system survive when the state cuts back? Lessons from the American experience. Keynote speech delivered at the annual meeting of Conference on Higher Education Research at University of Iceland.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). When is school an answer to what social problems? Lessons from the early American republic. Lecture given as part of lecture series at University of Luxembourg on “Educational Systems: Historical, Cultural and Sociological Research Perspectives.”
- Labaree, David F. (2010). Education schools: Past, present, and future. On the occasion of centennial of the School of Education at the University of Kansas.
- Labaree, David F. (2009). What schools can’t do. Lecture given at doctoral colloquium on “Schools and Education in Modern Times: Historical Research” at the University of Berne, Switzerland.
- Labaree, David F. (2009). The limits of school reform. Duncan McArthur lecture at the Faculty of Education, Queens University, Kingston, Ontario.
- Labaree, David F. (2006). Markets and American higher education: An institutional success story. Vice presidential address (Division F, History of Education) at annual meeting of the American Educational Research Association, San Francisco
- Labaree, David F. (2006). An uneasy relationship: The problem of teacher education in the university. Speech at School of Education, University of Washington.
- Labaree, David F. (2005). Mutual subversion: A short history of the liberal and the professional in American higher education. Presidential address at annual meeting of the History of Education Society, Baltimore.

- Labaree, David F. (2003). Progressivism, schools, and schools of education: An American romance. Keynote address presented at the 25th annual meeting of the International Standing Conference for the History of Education, Sao Paulo, Brazil.
- Labaree, David F. (2003). The ed school's romance with progressivism. Paper presented at the annual Conference on Educational Policy, Brookings Institution, Washington, DC.
- Labaree, David F. (2002). The peculiar problem of preparing and becoming educational researchers. Paper presented at meeting of the NAE-SSRC Joint Committee on Education Research, Social Science Research Council, New York City.
- Labaree, David F. (2002). The trouble with American education schools. Lecture delivered at Tokyo Gakugei University, Tokyo.
- Labaree, David F. (2001). No exit: You can run but you can't hide from education as a public good. Keynote address delivered at the joint annual meeting of the Illinois Sociological Association and Wisconsin Sociological Association, Rockford, IL.
- Labaree, David F. (2000). The peculiar problem of preparing educational researchers. Paper presented at seminar, College of Education, Michigan State University.
- Labaree, David F. (1999). The peculiar problems of preparing teachers: Old hurdles to the new professionalism. Paper delivered at the International Conference on "The New Professionalism in Teaching: Teacher Education and Teacher Development in a Changing World," Chinese University of Hong Kong; also at the international meeting of PACT (Professional Actions and Cultures of Teachers), Hong Kong.
- Labaree, David F. (1999). No exit: Public education as a public good. Keynote address delivered at 50th anniversary conference of the Japan Society of Educational Sociology on "The Changing Terrain of Knowledge and Power in Education: Paradigms and Frontiers in the Sociology of Education," Tokyo.
- Labaree, David F. (1998). A history of resistance to educational standards. Speech given at the National Conference on Education Standards, Michigan State University.
- Labaree, David F. (1997). Schooling consumers and consuming the school. Speech given at annual meeting of the Educational Records Bureau, New York City.
- Labaree, David F. (1997). Education schools: Living with a lesser form of knowledge. Paper delivered at the Sixth National Conference on Educational Research, Oslo, Norway; also at the international meeting of PACT (Professional Actions and Cultures of Teachers), Oslo, Norway.
- Labaree, David F. (1997). The emergence of public education as a private good: A view from history. Speech given at the 50th annual meeting of the Education Writers Association, Washington, DC.

- Labaree, David F. (1996). The trouble with ed schools. Paper presented at colloquium, College of Education, Michigan State University.
- Labaree, David F. (1995). Normal effects: Normal schools and teachers' lives in the late 19th century U.S. Paper presented at the international meeting of PACT (Professional Actions and Cultures of Teaching), London, U.K.
- Labaree, David F. (1994). The lowly status of teacher education in the U.S.: The impact of markets and the implications for reform. Paper presented at colloquium, College of Education, Indiana University.
- Labaree, David F. (1993). Teacher education reform in socio-political context in the United States. Paper presented at the Rutgers Invitational Symposium on Education, Rutgers University.
- Labaree, David F. (1992). An unlovely legacy: The disabling impact of the market on American teacher education. Paper presented at colloquium, College of Education, Michigan State University.
- Labaree, David F. (1991). Limiting a generous vision: Thoughts on the evolution of American teacher education. Lecture delivered at the Conference on "Continuity and Change in Teacher Education", Faculty of Education, University of Western Ontario.
- Labaree, David F. (1991). Power and knowledge in educational reform: The teacher professionalization movement. University Lecture delivered at University of Wisconsin.
- Labaree, David F. (1991). Teacher education: An historical perspective. Paper presented at conference on "Studying Teacher Development", Faculty of Education, University of Western Ontario.
- Labaree, David F. (1990). The roots of the current movement to professionalize teaching. Paper presented at colloquium, College of Education, Michigan State University.
- Labaree, David F. (1988). Career ladders and the early public high school teacher. Paper given at the annual meetings of the History of Education Society and American Educational Studies Association, Toronto.
- Labaree, David F. (1988). Politics, markets, and the purposes of schooling. Paper presented at Tomorrow's Schools seminar on "Models of Learning, Models of Schooling," Holmes Group, Michigan State University.

SELECTED OTHER PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS:

- Labaree, David F. (2016). Historical roots of the push for equity and standards in American schooling: Reflections at the 50th anniversary of ESEA. Meeting of the Advisory Committee for the Stanford Graduate School of Education.

- Labaree, David F. (2014). Balancing access and advantage in the history of American schooling. Lecture given at doctoral colloquium “Theory and Data in the History of Education: A Cross-Cultural and Cross-Generational Exchange” at University of Wisconsin.
- Labaree, David F. (2013). Balancing access and advantage in the history of American schooling. Syracuse University School of Education.
- Labaree, David F. (2012). Sermon on educational research. Lecture at University of Delaware School of Education.
- Labaree, David F. (2012). What schools can’t do. Lecture at Soka University.
- Labaree, David F. (2012). What schools can’t do. Lecture at University of Michigan College of Education.
- Labaree, David F. (2012). Balancing access and advantage in the history of American schooling. Lecture at University of Luxembourg.
- Labaree, David F. (2011). Sermon on educational research. Lecture at University of Maryland College of Education.
- Labaree, David F. (2010). What education can’t do. Lecture at Beatrice S. and David I. Miller Seminar Series, Indiana University.
- Labaree, David F. (2008). An uneasy relationship: The problem of teacher education in the university. Speech at College of Education, University of Nebraska.
- Labaree, David F. (2007). An uneasy relationship: The problem of teacher education in the university. Speech at symposium on “Ed Schools: Perspectives on the Past, Prospects for the Future,” College of Education, University of Kentucky.
- Labaree, David F. (2007). The rise of American education. Speech at Faculty of Social Science, University of Iceland.
- Labaree, David F. (2006). An uneasy relationship: The problem of teacher education in the university. Keynote address at “2006 Graduate Student and Teacher-Researcher Symposium,” Department of Curriculum and Instruction, University of Maryland.
- Labaree, David F. (2005). The trouble with ed schools, and why there’s no remedy. Talk at colloquium, Center for the Study of Higher Education, University of California, Berkeley.
- Labaree, David F. (2005). The trouble with ed schools, and why there’s no remedy. Speech at conference on “Teaching the Disciplines and the Discipline of Teaching,” School of Education, University of Michigan.

- Labaree, David F. (2005). Multiple talks presented as a visiting professor at Örebro University and Karlstad University (Sweden): The trouble with ed schools; Conflicting goals for American education; On the nature of teaching and teacher education; On the problem of preparing educational researchers; The professionalization of teaching.
- Labaree, David F. (2003). The institutional context for the preparation of educational researchers in education schools. Workshop on “A National Conversation about Doctoral Programs for Future Leaders in Educational Research,” Committee on Research in Education (of the National Research Council), Washington, DC.
- Labaree, David F. (2002). Comment on paper by John Bishop. Brookings Conference on Educational Policy, Brookings Institution, Washington, DC.
- Labaree, David F. (2002). Getting it wrong: Reflections on a career in scholarship. Keynote address delivered at Mentoring Seminar for doctoral students and new faculty in history of education, Division F, American Educational Research Association, New Orleans.
- Labaree, David F. (2002). Fairness and formalism: Exploring the impact of markets on American education. Colloquium, School of Education, Stanford University.
- Labaree, David F. (1997). The rise of private over public goals for American education. Teachers from the Seoul Metropolitan Office of Education, Michigan State University.
- Labaree, David F. (1996). The Holmes Group and the education school. College of Education, Moorhead State University, Moorhead, MN.
- Labaree, David F. (1993). The failure of teacher professionalization in the United States. Talk given at the international meeting of PACT (Professional Actions and Cultures of Teachers), London, Ontario.
- Labaree, David F. (1989). Why teaching in the modern high school is so difficult. Talk given at the School Improvement Seminar, Michigan intermediate school districts, Mason.
- Labaree, David F. (1989). Dilemmas of equity and access to knowledge. Talk given at the Seminar on the Reform of Teacher Education, College of Education, Michigan State University.
- Labaree, David F. (1988). Historical patterns of high school reform efforts. Talk given at Institute on Secondary Reading, annual meeting of International Reading Association, Toronto.
- Labaree, David F. (1985). The real costs of promotion and graduation standards. Speech given at annual conference of Urban School Superintendents of New Jersey, Princeton.
- Labaree, David F. (1983). Raising standards for student promotions: Problems and prospects. Speech given at workshop for school superintendents, Pennsylvania School Study Councils, Philadelphia.

RECENT LEADERSHIP ROLES IN STANFORD GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION:

Chair, Area Committee in Social Sciences, Humanities, and Interdisciplinary Policy Studies, 2011 to 2017.

Chair, Area Committee in Social Sciences, Policy, and Educational Practice, 2009 to 2011.

Associate Dean for Student Affairs, 2005 to 2008.

Chair of Spencer Research Training Grant committee, 2004 to 2008.

Chair, Committee on Core Curriculum, 2005 to 2007.

Chair, Area Chairs Committee, 2005 to 2008.

Chair, M.A. Directors Committee, 2006 to 2008.

RECENT SERVICE ROLES AT STANFORD UNIVERSITY:

Faculty chair, Kozmetzky Global Collaboratory, Stanford University, 2015 to present.

Member, Academic Senate, 2014 to 2016

Member, Steering Committee, Academic Senate, 2015 to 2016.

Member, Committee on Committees, Stanford Senate, 2014 to 2015.

GRANTS:

Research Group Fellowship Planning Grant, for developing a postdoctoral fellowship program in educational research, $50,000, 2000; Spencer Foundation

Research Training Grant, “Making the Most of the Middle Years: A Revised Plan for Enhancing the Preparation of Educational Researchers,” $1,100,000, 2002-2007; Spencer Foundation. Institutional grant, Michigan State University College of Education; I wrote the proposal and coordinated the program.

Spencer Mentor Program, providing support for doctoral students whom I mentored, $50,000, 1999-2001; Spencer Foundation

Conference Grant, supporting a conference on “Preparing Researchers to Study Practice,” $43,000, 1999, with Carole Ames, Michigan State University College of Education; Spencer Foundation

SELECTED ROLES IN PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

Member, Board of Directors, John Dewey Society, 2013-2016.

Member, Review Committee for National Academy of Education/Spencer Foundation
Dissertation Fellowships, 2015 to 2018.

Member, Committee for Lifetime Achievement Award in Curriculum Studies, Division B,
American Educational Research Association, 2013.

Member, Task Force on Evaluating Educational Research, Scholarship and Teaching in Postsecondary Education, American Educational Research Association, 2012-2013.

Member, Distinguished Contributions to Research in Education Committee, American Educational Research Association, 2008-2010.

Member, Outstanding Book Award Committee, American Educational Research Association, 2001-2003.

Program chair for Division F, American Educational Research Association, 1994 annual meeting.

Member, Board of Directors, History of Education Society, 1991-94.

RECENT EDITORIAL BOARD MEMBERSHIPS:

Curriculum Inquiry (2015-18)

Bildungsgeschichte: International Journal for the Historiography of Education (2011 to present)

Paedagogica Historica (2011-present)

Educational Researcher (2010-12)

American Educational Research Journal (1993-97; 1999-2002, 2005-07; 2008-11)

Educational Theory (1993-96; 2002-06; 2008-2012)

Zeitschrift für Pädagogische Historiographie (2008 to 2010)

Education and Democracy (2008 to 2010)

RECENT REVIEWING:

Recent reviewing of book manuscripts and proposals for:

University of Chicago Press

Harvard Education Press

Yale University Press

Oxford University Press

Teachers College Press

Harvard University Press

Stanford University Press

Cambridge University Press

University of Toronto Press

Springer
 Palgrave Macmillan
 Routledge
 University Press of Kansas
 McGill-Queens University Press

Recent reviewing of papers for:

Curriculum Inquiry
American Educational Research Journal
Educational Theory
Educational Researcher
Journal of Curriculum Studies
Paedagogica Historica
Review of Educational Research
Journal of Teacher Education
Sociology of Education
Pensamiento Educativo Latinamericana
Journal of Education Policy
History of Education Quarterly
History of Education
American Journal of Education
Educational Policy
The Sociological Quarterly
Journal of American History

Recent reviewing of research proposals for:

University of Luxemburg
 Research Foundation – Flanders (Belgium)
 Israel Science Foundation
 National Research Foundation, South Africa
 Spencer Foundation
 Canadian Social Science Research Council
 Earhart Foundation
 Guggenheim Foundation

Recent reviewing candidates for promotion and tenure at:

Harvard University
 Bard College
 University of Maryland
 Vanderbilt University
 Brown University
 University of Florida
 Teachers College, Columbia
 Washington State University
 Open University of Cyprus
 University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee
 University of Pennsylvania

Texas A & M University
University of Washington, Seattle
Temple University
Texas A & M University
University of Illinois, Champaign-Urbana
University of California, Berkeley
National Institute of Education, Nanyang Technological University, Singapore
Bowdoin College
Wellesley College
Rutgers University
University of California, Irvine

Reviewing applications for National Academy of Education/Spencer Foundation Dissertation Fellowships, 2012-2013.

MEMBERSHIPS IN PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

History of Education Society
American Educational Research Association
American Sociological Association
John Dewey Society